

Untitled

Radiological Report : CT Head :

Unenhanced CT scans of the brain show a loculated area of haemorrhage in the temporal lobe adjacent to the middle cerebral artery.

There is a large amount of subarachnoid blood over the left hemisphere as a result. Some blood is tracking into the falx posteriorly.

COMMENT: Appearances are those of an aneurysm rupture related to the left middle cerebral artery.